THURSDAY, Sept. 21, 1911.

Wonder if Washington county will be represented at the Inter-State Fair at Pensacola? Jackson and Holmes counties are to have exhibits there.

Don't live in a community in which you do not believe. If you have faith in your home community get a suit of booster clothes and wear them every day.

The greatest force for the uplifting of a community is purity of life among the citizens. Without this predominating, the ideal conditions which are desired by all thinking people can not exist; but with it every civic virtue is attainable.

Washington county wants more factories and industrial enterprises, more good citizens, farmers and home-makers, and more capital for development. We have good soil, good schools and churches, an ideal climate and a people who will give you a cordial welcome.

At the convention of the Farmers' National Union held at Shawnee, Oklahoma, last week, President C. S. Barrett of Union City, Ga., was re-elected. The Union adopted a resolution urging the cotton grower to hold his cotton for 14 cents during September and October, and for 15 cents thereafter.

There are three things which, according to Dr. W. W. Smith, make and mark the man of power: A sound and active body, a sound and active mind, and a sound and active conscience. And upon the latter let special emphasis be placed for "more men fail in life from weakness of conscience than from weakness of intellect."

The county commissioners of Volusia county are said to be using sawdust on the roads, and with good effect, too. In nearly all the counties in the state the interest in good roads is constantly on the increase. People who have heretofore thought that what could not be changed completely might as well remain at its worst, are now anxious for the county officers to do the best they can in all circumstances.

Southern state commissioners of agriculture, officials and members of the Farmers' Union, bankers and business men and representatives of the leading commercial organizations of the South met in Montgomery last week to consider the gradual marketing of the 1911 cotton crop to correct an alleged erroneous impression as to its volume and to take steps to prevent a bearish campaign. All the leading cotton producing states were officially represented, and the action of the convention is expected to have a favorable effect upon the price of cotton.

WAUSAU.

Dr. W. E. Coleman of Chipley was here professionally Wednesday.

Our town had its usual large crowd Saturday, and business was good.

Uncle Steve Simmons, one of our prosperous farmers, was in town Saturday.

Uncle E. B. Tiller and daughter, Miss Jane, visited relatives at Norum last week.

The U. S. thermometer went to 100 last Thursday, which is high for September.

The W. O. W. boys held their regular meeting Saturday night, which was well attended.

Charley Hicks has been painting his dwelling the past week, which adds much to its looks.

We are sorry to note that the aged Mrs. Turner is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Turner. It is not likely that she will recover.

We measured a sugar cane the past week grown on the farm of S. W. Roberson of Pinelock that was matured 8 feet, which is the best we have seen this season.

Rev. M. E. Grant filled his regular monthly appointment here in the afternoon Sunday and a large congregation was present. The service was held in the Baptist church.

President Taft is off on his 13,000 miles speech making tour. He will defend his vetoes of the tariff reduction bills, and urge the adoption of the arbitration treaties.

The election for Canadian members of Parliament is being held today. The paramount question is the reciprocity agreement with the United States. There is great interest in the result and both sides claim to be certain of victory.

"And all the Cows with one accord began to make excuses"

why they were not furnishing plenty of milk and butter. But not so since they have learned of BEET PULP.

But we must not put all the stress on cow feed, as the owners of the cows must have good wearing apparel. And we have that, too.

Just here your attention is called to that wonderful line of Hose and half-Hose, the old original Hole-Proof hose and half hose to fit the family; "Good as Gold" line of half hose, every pair guaranteed.

Also that new kind "Insured Hose and Sox;" they are also guaranteed against holes, and the wearer against accidents. Any male person over 17 years of age and under 65 years, for the small sum of One Dollar and Fifty cents can purchase six pair of these guaranteed Sox and a Thousand Dollar Accident Policy; face value to be paid in case of death, or total disability by accident; or part thereof for disabilities not total.

Sock wearers, think of this; come get a half dozen of them and your policy before they are gone.

We invite you to inspect our new line of Trunks, Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, etc., as well as the rest of our large stock of everything in general merchandise.

Yours as always.

Campbell & Dekle Company.
